ERLENBORN ON WAY TO TONOPAH

MAN TO FIGHT FREDDIE WEEKS WILL BE HERE TOMORROW.

Manager Charles Miller yesterday received word that Erlenborn, the clever fighter who will meet Freddie Weeks here on Labor day, had left Denver and in all probability he should arrive here either tomorrow or Friday. Erlenborn has just had a scrap in Wyoming and is in perfect condition, but will still continue to train until the date of his match. Freddie Weeks will start in active training this afternoon in the Casino and it is expected that a large crowd of admirers will be present to watch him. He has continued to do road work since his last fight with Dougherty and is in good condition. It will take but a few days for him to round into shape.

PERSONAL MENTION

Charles Peterson has gone to Rawhide. Will Castleton left for Blair yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Booth left yesterday for Rawhide. T. B. Beadle of Rhyolite was a Tonopah visitor yesterday. S. O. Lowe visited Goldfield yesterday, returning in the afternoon. W. H. Blackburn left yesterday for a business trip to Los Angeles. Sheriff J. J. Owens left yesterday for Duckwater on legal business. P. H. Hebb was a passenger on yesterday mornin's north bound train. Jim Butler, the father of Tonopah, arrived in this city from the south yesterday. Louis de Sallier, one of the pioneers of Tonopah, arrived yesterday from San Francisco. Henry Bartlett came in from Round Mountain last night and goes to Goldfield this morning. J. Watt Briggs and James Meighan came in yesterday from their mining property at Lone Mountain. Charles E. Knox, president and general manager of the Montana Tonopah, arrived in this city yesterday. Mrs. C. H. Morey will leave this morning for California, where she will visit several points on the coast. She expects to be absent for several months. The Round Mountain Nugget came in from the hydraulic camp last evening under the guidance of Charles Cole, bringing a full load of passengers. Among them being Captain Thatcher, Hugh Thatcher, Jack McQuillan, V. Carlson, Cy Johnson and that eminent newspaper man, Henry Bartlett.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL.

At the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, August 28, the Ladies' Aid will give an ice cream social to which everybody is invited. The entertainment committee has secured some excellent talent for the occasion and a jolly good time is promised to all.

If you desire tulling or blinding in a first-class manner call up the Bonanza and our collector will attend to your wants.

DOUGHERTY GETS THE DECISION

SIX-ROUND GO AT THE BIG CASINO DELIGHTS THE FIGHT FANS.

Everybody got their money's worth at the Big Casino last night. The crowd was the largest that has assembled in the great floor space, boxes and stage of the dance pavilion, even the roof garden was filled to overflowing and the fans yelled themselves hoarse as round after round proceeded with the Salt Lake Kid the aggressor. His famous haymaker, however, failed to land and after being the aggressor all the way through Referee Booz Byers was compelled to give the decision to Dougherty. The outcome would have been entirely different had the floor space been confined to the regulation ring size. The sympathy of the entire crowd was with the Mormon boy who knows no fear, is agile as a cat and has the making of a great fighter. In the hands of competent trainers the follower of Prophet Joseph Smith would make an ideal fighter. He is clean limbed with muscles fairly developed, an eye that misses no chance and in making his getaway always tries to land a haymaker. The fight by rounds:

Round 1—Loud cheers for the Salt Lake boy caused him to wade right in, reaching for any portion of the body of Dougherty, who kept moving away, apparently afraid of the terrible wallop in the right mit of the believer in the tenets of Brigham Young. If he had landed in this round on Dougherty it would have been the tooting of Gabriel's horn and the daisies for Dougherty.

Round 2—The Mormon plants a stiff right to jaw of Dougherty, who immediately executes a Maud S gait to keep out of the reach of the almost invincible devotee of the golden plates found by the angel Moroni.

Round 3—The Salt Lake Kid begins moving his arm like Boaz using the flail in the fields of rye patch, while Ruth and Sarah in the boxes were shouting to Kid Dougherty to get under cover. As the gong sounded Ham and Jehosaphat took their man to his corner and advised him as to the use of his left in the next round.

Round 4—At this juncture Time-keeper Johnson cautioned the vast audience against smoking as both tobacco and tea are tabooed by the creed of the devout Mormon and the Salt Lake Kid owes his allegiance to that doctrine. They met with a fierce exchange of blows and the ones sent in by the mangle worker resembled that of when David slew Goliath and Dougherty sought his corner for a rest.

Round 5—The Salt Laker with visions of a good fat purse dancing before his eyes, begins shooting rights and lefts for almost anywhere. Dougherty at this juncture takes time to arrange his tights, thus giving the Mormon a chance to swing for the point of his jaw, falling in which he essays the pivot, but is short in both. The gong sounds and saves $2.50 for a sport who had his meal ticket up on the fight.

Round 6—Both men at the order of the referee and Announcer Daly advance to the center and shook hands gingerly. Dougherty led but fell short and the Mormon sent six rights and lefts in rapid succession. Considerable sparring and a few clinches were indulged in and the referee held up the mit of Dougherty. The Salt Lake Kid tendered his mit to the referee, but Byers refused to consider it and Dougherty was declared the winner.

Lawrence, who was defeated the other night by the Salt Lake Kid, is anxious to have another go with the

DO YOU KNOW

That from October 1st, 1907, to June 1st, 1908, a period in which occurred the greatest financial disturbance experienced in the United States in fifty years, not one National Bank in Nevada, California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, or Washington, was forced out of business by the stringency.

Is not a bank financially strong and sufficiently resourceful to have escaped the extreme effects of the panic of last fall worthy of your confidence?

Why not open an account with the "National."

man from Utah who forced him to take the count and Manager Steadman has arranged to have the boys meet at the Casino in a six-round contest on Friday night.

The Casino is getting to be training quarters for quite a few of the sports. Ralph Caloway, who is to fight Gus Castro on Labor day, is to be seen there every afternoon, and as he is one of the most scientific boxers known, it will be a pleasure to see him work out.

SMALL FIRE AT BELMONT EXTENSION

GALLOW'S FRAME AND FIVE SETS OF TIMBERS ARE DESTROYED.

A fire of incendiary origin was started at the Belmont Extension mine, which is situated about two miles northeast of town, yesterday afternoon, and resulted in the burning of the gallow's frame and about five sets of timbers in the shaft. The fire was discovered by employees of the Buckeye mine and the alarm was telephoned into town and the fire department responded and extinguished the fire. But for the prompt notification by the Buckeye people the entire shaft would have burnt as there is no one employed at the mine at present.

MALLEY RETURNS WITH PRISONER

Richard Wayne and partner, who were arrested at Mina Monday on telegraphic instructions from Chief Malley, on a charge of defrauding an inn keeper, were brought back to Tonopah yesterday by Chief Malley, who went to the northern town after them. They will be arraigned in the justice's court this morning.

SQUIRES STOOD UP THIRTEEN ROUNDS

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 25.—Tommy Burns, the American champion, administered defeat to Bill Squires of Australia in the thirteenth round, winning by a knockout.

EIGHT DROWN IN RUSHING WATERS

(By Associated Press.)
COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 25.—It is reported from Camden, South Carolina, that the toll bridge over the Wateree river near that place was washed away by floods today, carrying with it about twenty-five people. Meagre reports indicate the dead to number eight.

ENDS LIFE WITH BOTTLE.

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 25.—J. A. Kearney, a Redlands newspaper man, detained in the city jail here, while recovering from the effects of liquor, cut his throat tonight with a piece of bottle which had been left in the jail with some medicine. Kearney broke the bottle and with the ragged edge served his juglar vein. He was dead when found. He was 35 years old and married.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

Two country youths were on a visit to London. They went into the British museum and there saw a mummy, over which hung a card on which was printed, "B. C. 87."

They were mystified, and one said, "What do you make of it, Bill?" "Well," said Bill, "I should say it was the number of the motor car that killed him."—Tit-Bits.

THE PASSION PLAY AT THE BUTLER

LIFE OF THE SAVIOUR TOLD IN A BEAUTIFUL SETTING.

With all the human characteristics that dominate the life of the Saviour, the observation of his work, his life, and the sublime mode of instruction, the story as told by the bible is an effective and beautiful reference. "The Passion Play" as observed and acted is a most complete treatment of the Deity.

Dating from 1633 the "Passion Play" was a mystery in the middle ages. Usually performed during holy week, and by members of the Roman Catholic faith, it was finally repressed in Germany, after the reformation, excepting in those parts where the people retained the Catholic creed.

In the eighteenth century Carl Theodore and King Maximilian, Joseph I, forbade the performance of such mysteries in Bavaria, making an exception in the case of the villagers of Oberammergau.

These people had escaped contagion of a plague that was raging in their neighborhood and made a vow to perform such a play every ten years. This they have done, and attracted visitors from all over the world.

It requires 600 people to stage this drama, and the character of Christ is taken by one who is religious and sanctified.

With a special program of music, and the original character of Oberammergau, "The Passion Play" will be seen at the Butler theater tonight and Thursday.
